Massages

THAI & RELAXATION MASSAGES

Traditional Thai Massage

The most well-known form of Thai massage, with a tradition dating back hundreds of years. The therapist applies pressure with palms, thumbs, elbows and feet along energy pathways, interspersing the massage with passive stretching in gentle yoga poses. Performed without oil on a comfortable mat on the floor; the client stays fully clothed. It relaxes stiff muscles, improves mobility and leaves you feeling light and full of fresh energy.

Recommended clothing: underwear or light leggings and a T-shirt.

Head & Neck Massage

A gentle, dry massage of the cervical spine, head, neck and shoulders. Targeted pressure on acupressure points releases tension and blockages that build up here from prolonged sitting and stress. It brings a pleasant sense of calm, relieves a stiff neck and helps with headaches caused by overexertion.
